

OUR TOURS

RAIL CART

Travel along an abandoned railway line through tunnels in deep hidden valleys, to townships that time forgot. Put yourself in the driver's seat on one of our guided tours, as our rail carts are cleverly adapted to be self-driven along the tracks of the Forgotten World Railway.

TOKIRIMA 10 $265PP

A magical half-day rail cart experience through 10 unique hand-built tunnels, including the longest, to Tokirima - home of New Zealand's smallest post office. Immerse yourself in the culture and history of the region and marvel at the engineering and determination of our pioneers. Enjoy a stroll and a coffee at the aromatic Lavender Farm on the way.

INCLUSIONS: Half-day guided rail cart tour; morning or afternoon tea; ploughman's lunch; Lauren's Lavender Farm; transfers

OPTIONAL EXTRA: Accommodation at Forgotten World Motel

STEP INTO THE FORGOTTEN WORLD

The Forgiven World - the place history left behind.
A quiet mystery in the Central North Island.

Explore back-country ghost towns and discover untouched New Zealand landscapes by air, boat and rail. Or step off the grid entirely and into a living museum of hardy pioneer beginnings. This is the Forgiven World - the place history left behind. A quiet mystery in the Central North Island, and Forgiven World Adventures offers numerous ways to explore it.

Connect with the past and the present with stories of our indigenous people, and colonial tales. See current wildlife conservation efforts in action. Travel the length of the Whanganui River, historically positioned as our very own 'Rhine of the Pacific', bringing curious tourists from all across the world down to this special part of New Zealand since 1892.

While you're here, immersed in a time forgotten, Forgiven World Adventures will uphold the Tiaki Promise as your tour guides: standing by our commitment to New Zealand as a guardian and protector of this precious place, our home.

Escape your world, and join us in ours. Your luxury time travel adventures await...
